Brief Career Highlights

Vincent started his career with the audit profession in London, qualifying as a chartered accountant with Farrow Middleton in 1976 (was made a fellow in 1977) before joining the PA Consulting Group, based initially in Singapore and later in London. He was responsible for PA's financial, HR and administrative management of the Asian and later UK group whilst gaining experience as a management consultant. He was subsequently promoted in 1989 as commercial director of PA Technology based in Cambridge, England handling commercial negotiations and intellectual properties, in addition to managing the laboratory comprising state-of-the-art technology and staffed by scientists, engineers and technicians.

In 1994 he was headhunted to the position of Chief Financial Officer of FACB Berhad, a KLSE-listed public conglomerate based in KL. As part of his role, he was seconded along with other senior executives to head up the massive USD1.2 billion investment in Cambodia involving banking, education, trading and a casino business.

Vincent Loh is a member of the Malaysian Institute of Management (MIM) and a MIM Certified Professional Trainer (MIM-CPT).
